Description

Single-sided poster, approximately 385mm x 500mm, n.d. circa 1975?

Slightly browned, a few small chips to edges, with light creasing from old folds, but generally in good order, with attractive bold graphics.

Big Flame was a socialist group (1970-1984) largely based on Merseyside, but with other regional groups, the name was taken from a television play written by Jim Allen and directed by Ken Loach. Though quite a small group it produced a newspaper and a wide range of pamphlets
